Summary of reasons
for classification:

The DVD Alexander Revisited The Final Cut Disc One is classified as:

Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 13 years.

The DVD contains the first part of a feature film previously classified under the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. It was classified "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 13 years" and assigned the descriptive note, "Contains violence and sex scenes". This decision (OFLC 402093) was registered on 10 January 2005. Another publication (OFLC 501310) containing an extended version of the film on DVD was given the same classification and descriptive note on 20 July 2005. Part two of the feature in this publication has been examined separately (OFLC 702117). Both parts have been considered together for overall classification.

Alexander Revisited The Final Cut Disc One contains some additional material that further extends the feature and also contains a brief introductory piece delivered by the director of the film. The extra material in the feature and the extra component do not require the DVD to be given a different classification to that of the film originally examined. However, due to the added extent of some of the violence the descriptive note for this disc and the one containing the second part of the feature becomes "Violence, sex scenes and content that may disturb".
